

Lecture Series for 10th Semester Students on Pleading, Drafting and Conveyance -2022

The students of law need certain professional skill sets to attain the highest levels of professional success in their careers in addition to theoretical knowledge in the domains of legal education. Drafting, pleading, and conveyancing are indispensable components for achieving professional recognition as a legal practitioner. Drafting involves composing precise legal documents while pleading relates to the articulation of formal statements for legal arguments. Conveyancing deals with procedures of property rights transfer. These processes are crucial for creating accurate and legally compliant documents, ensuring clarity, and protecting clients' interests. Whether in civil litigation, general law, or real estate understanding drafting, pleading, and conveyancing is vital for success. The ability to draft coherent contracts, articulate legal points in the courtroom during pleading

Surendranath Law College, an esteemed Law college, affiliated to the Calcutta University in 1885, imparting UG education since 1885, organized a series of lectures for the 10th Semester Students on the topic “Drafting, Pleading & Conveyance” on 22nd, 23rd, 24th to 27th March, 29th & 30th March, and 2nd, 4th to 8th April, 27th to 30th April 2022 at the Seminal Hall of Surendranath Law College which was counselled by Prof. Dr. Mohammadi Tarannum, Vice-Principal of the Surendranath Law College at college premises.

Learning Drafting, Pleading, and Conveyance is crucial for 10th-semester law students as it forms the foundation of practical legal skills essential for their professional careers. Mastery of drafting equips students with the ability to create precise legal documents, including contracts, agreements, and petitions, while pleading involves crafting arguments and presenting them effectively in court. Conveyance focuses on the transfer of property rights through well-drafted legal instruments. Together, these skills ensure that future legal professionals are competent in both litigation and transactional law, empowering them to navigate complex legal matters and represent clients with precision and clarity.

The lecture series consisted of multiple sessions covering the three essential components of Drafting, Pleading & Conveyance. Each session was designed to provide students with hands-on experience and real-life applications of these legal skills. Faculty members, along with guest speakers from the legal profession, delivered insightful lectures and practical exercises to engage students.

The special lecture series successfully achieved its objectives, providing students with a thorough understanding of drafting, pleading, and conveyance. The practical exercises allowed students to gain hands-on experience in preparing legal documents, framing court pleadings, and drafting property transfer documents.

The special lecture series on "Drafting, Pleading & Conveyance" proved to be an invaluable learning experience for the 10th-semester students at Surendranath Law College. The program not only enhanced their legal drafting skills but also prepared them for real-world legal practice by providing essential practical knowledge in core areas of law. The college aims to continue such programs to ensure that students are well-equipped for their future roles as legal professionals.

Glimpses of the Event

