OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME :

The manipulation by business tycoons over political parties have rendered the machinery of government as a relic from the past. Media, as seen by us today, is subjected to political affiliation oftentimes and hence influence the mass with news and report of no use of the dialysis of the country. As a result mass communication and cultural growth has come to a stagnant degree. Intellectually society downgrades itself.

Conduction of this programme runs a great significance in the mirror of the society's future. The sociological stance of media and mass has been depicted at the cluster of programmes of MED GALA 2022 by the students of Surendranath Law College immensely.
