Inter-Semester Elocution Competition on the Occasion of International Women's Day- 2025

Surendranath Law College, a prestigious institution in Kolkata with a storied legacy of over a century, is deeply committed to the pursuit of justice, equality, and the rule of law. Founded by the illustrious nationalist leader Surendranath Banerjee, the college has long been a beacon of legal education in India, producing countless legal professionals who have made significant contributions to the judiciary, academia, and public service. The college's ethos is rooted in the principles of social justice and human rights, aligning with its mission to not only educate students in the law but also to instill in them a deep sense of responsibility towards society. Surendranath Law College, a distinguished institution with a rich legacy in legal education, has been at the forefront of shaping future leaders in the legal profession. Established with a vision to impart quality education and foster intellectual growth, the college is known for its rigorous academic curriculum, vibrant campus life, and a strong emphasis on practical legal training. Over the years, it has produced numerous accomplished lawyers, judges, and legal professionals who have made significant contributions to the field of law. The college is committed to providing its students with the skills and knowledge required to excel in a rapidly evolving global legal landscape.

On the 5th of April, Surendranath Law College celebrated Women's Day with great enthusiasm and a commitment to promoting gender equality and women's empowerment. The event was organized in commemoration of International Women's Day, observed globally on 8th March, to honor the achievements of women and advocate for gender equality. The highlight of the celebration was an inter-semester elocution competition organized by the Extempore Club, convened by Dr. Sarani Roy, in collaboration with the Women Empowerment Cell of the college, led by its convenor Dr. Shyamali Mukherjee Bhattacharya. The event was chaired by Dr. Mohammadi Tarannum, the Vice Principal of Surendranath Law College, whose inspiring presence added grace and significance to the occasion. The theme for the competition was "Role of Law in Empowering Women," a topic that resonated deeply with the spirit of the event.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various semesters. The participants eloquently expressed their views on how legal frameworks contribute to the empowerment of women, addressing issues like gender equality, rights protection, and legal reforms aimed at safeguarding women's interests. Their speeches highlighted critical legislations such as the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005, the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013, and various constitutional provisions that uphold gender justice.

The competition concluded with the announcement of six position holders, celebrating their exceptional oratory skills and insightful perspectives. The winners included two students sharing the First Position, one student securing the Second Position, and two students claiming the Third Position. All the position holders were awarded certificates and trophies in recognition of their achievements, encouraging them to continue championing the cause of women's rights through legal advocacy and public speaking.
