ABOUT THE PROGRAMME:

Surendranath Law College, in collaboration with Sree Ramkrishna Sevasram, Narasinghapur, organised an awareness programme for the senior citizens of the society, who were the residents of an old age home. The pious programme was conducted on the 27th of August, 2022 from 11:00 AM onwards with the view to make them aware of their rights, both legal and moral.

Several students of Surendranath Law College from various semesters, participated in this awareness programme, under the supervision of Prof. Dr. Amit Ghosh, programme Coordinator, Prof. Subhashna Tamang, Prof. Angshu Roy and the constant guidance of the institution's respected Vice Principal, Dr. Mohammadi Tarannum.

Other faculty members, namely Prof. Dr. Rajarshi Das, Prof. Dr. Ceaser Roy, Prof. Niloy Bagchi, Prof. Avirupa Chatterjee, Prof. Debjani Ojha stood as a constant support and a source of encouragement for the students. Students showed their keen interest in making posters, banners and performing arts like music and drama.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME:

The Joint Family System is slowly fading away and soon become extinct. Various reasons such as lifestyle changes, workload, marriage and a lot more. These reasons result in the old mothers and fathers being neglected by their own blood hence ultimately dooring them to the bells of the much dreaded OLD AGE Homes. The students whole heartedly interacted with the old mothers and fathers and made them aware of their legal and moral rights. In addition to such awareness, the students did a commendable work in entertaining the senior citizens with their drama and mellifluous singing, receiving love, warmth and blessings from all of them.
