About the Course:

Bansikranth Law College, an esteemed Law college, affiliated to the University of Calicut, has been imparting legal education since 1985. Along with an established framework of conventional classroom teaching and several enlightening seminars, conferences and workshops, our college provides online certificate courses on various subjects, this particular course focuses on the Human Trafficking Related Laws. The course duration is for 30 hours, from 13/05/2024- 03/05/2024, and it shall be conducted through online platform.

Key Focus:

The primary focus of this course is to enhance the knowledge of the students regarding the laws pertaining to Human Trafficking, the course shall delve with:

1. Understanding the Legal Framework: The course provides an in-depth exploration of the legal frameworks governing human trafficking at national, regional, and international levels, including relevant treaties, conventions, and laws.
2. Identification and Definition: Participants learn how to identify and define human trafficking according to legal definitions, distinguishing it from related crimes such as smuggling and exploitation.
3. Victim Protection and Support: The course emphasizes the legal rights and protections afforded to victims of human trafficking, including access to justice, support services, and avenues for seeking compensation.
4. Prosecution and Law Enforcement: Participants gain insights into the legal procedures and challenges involved in investigating, prosecuting, and convicting perpetrators of human trafficking, as well as strategies for effective law enforcement cooperation.
5. Prevention Strategies: The course delves into legal strategies for preventing human trafficking, including awareness-raising campaigns, legislative reforms, and collaboration with key stakeholders such as NGOs and law enforcement agencies.

6. Gender and Human Trafficking: Participants examine the intersection of gender dynamics and human trafficking laws, exploring how gender-based discrimination and inequality contribute to vulnerability and shape legal responses.
7. Transnational Perspectives: Given the global nature of human trafficking, the course addresses legal issues related to cross-border trafficking, international cooperative mechanisms, and extradition procedures.
8. Human Rights and Trafficking: Participants explore the human rights dimensions of human trafficking laws, including the right to freedom, dignity, and non-discrimination, as well as the obligations of states to prevent and combat trafficking.
9. Ethical and Legal Challenges: The course engages with ethical dilemmas and legal complexities inherent in addressing human trafficking, such as the tension between law enforcement objectives and the protection of victims' rights.
10. Emerging Trends and Policy Responses: Participants examine emerging trends in human trafficking, such as online exploitation and trafficking in the context of armed conflict, and evaluate the effectiveness of legal and policy responses in addressing these challenges.
