Sub: Consolidated Appraisal Report of Orientation Programme, ERP Training, and National Workshop on Legal Education in the Globalised Scenario

Respected Madam,

We, Mafuza Yasmin (Assistant Professor, Sociology & Mentor-in-Charge, 1st Semester) and Chandrima Sen (Faculty of Sociology & Mentor, 1st Semester), are honoured to submit the consolidated Appraisal Report of the academic programmes organised for the newly admitted 1st Semester students of the 5-Year B.A. LL.B. Course for the Academic Session 2025–26.

These include:

1. Orientation Programme (24–29 November 2025)
2. ERP Demonstration-cum-Training Session
3. Workshop on “Objectives and Perspectives of Legal Education in the Current Globalised Scenario” (06 December 2025)

All programmes were conducted under the esteemed guidance and supervision of Prof. (Dr.) Mohammadi Tarannum, Vice Principal, Surendranath Law College.

I. ORIENTATION PROGRAMME & ERP TRAINING SESSION (24–29 November 2025)

ABOUT THE COLLEGE (SURENDRANATH LAW COLLEGE)

Surendranath Law College, one of the oldest and most distinguished law institutions in West Bengal, has a longstanding legacy of imparting quality legal education since its establishment. Rooted in academic excellence and a commitment to social justice, the college nurtures future legal professionals with strong ethical values, critical thinking, and a global outlook. With an experienced faculty, vibrant academic culture, and continuous engagement with the legal fraternity, the college strives to prepare students for the complexities of contemporary legal practice.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The Orientation Programme was designed to familiarize students with the institution’s values, mission, academic environment, infrastructure, teaching-learning framework, and various support services available on campus. It also aimed to introduce the students to faculty members, college regulations, academic processes, and co-curricular opportunities, thus enabling their smooth transition into law school.

Complementing the Orientation, the ERP Demonstration-cum-Training Session provided hands-on training on the college’s digital academic management system, covering key features essential for attendance tracking, digital notices, class schedules, study materials, online forms, assessments, and overall academic workflow

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAMME

- To Orient Students to the Institution:
- Introduce them to the college's academic culture, faculty members, code of conduct, course structure, examination systems, and support services.
- To Strengthen Academic Preparedness:
- Provide clarity on regulations, library and research facilities, co-curricular and extracurricular activities, legal aid services, and career-development opportunities.
- To Train Students on ERP Usage:
- Enable effective navigation of the online academic portal for accessing study materials, timetables, attendance, notifications, assessments, and other academic tools.
- To Support Holistic Development
- 8. Familiarize students with societies, clubs, internship guidance, moot court activities, and other initiatives contributing to professional growth.
- 9. To Build Institutional Belongingness:
- 10. Help students integrate into campus life by creating awareness of procedures, responsibilities, and expectations.

PROGRAMME DETAILS

The Orientation Programme spanned six days, featuring interactive sessions by distinguished faculty members and coordinators. Each day focused on structured exposure to the institutional framework and student support mechanisms.

Key modules included:

- Introduction by Vice Principal
- Overview of IQAC and College Administration
- Examination and Attendance Framework
- Anti-Ragging Awareness & Student Grievance Redressal
- Code of Conduct
- Library & Research Facilities
- Career Development & Counselling
- Moot Court and Internship Cell
- Legal Aid Services
- ERP Modules: Attendance, Materials, Assessments, Online Forms, Notices
- Digital Navigation & Academic Workflow

Faculty members from multiple departments, alongside administrative representatives, conducted the sessions with clarity and precision.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

Attendance throughout the six-day programme was compulsory and remained consistently high. Students participated enthusiastically, engaged with resource persons, and showed keen interest in understanding academic processes, ERP usage, and institutional opportunities.

Their active involvement reflected both discipline and eagerness to integrate into the academic community.

DISTINGUISHED PARTICIPATION

We sincerely acknowledge the presence and leadership of our Vice Principal, Prof. (Dr.) Mohammadi Tarannum, whose guidance enhanced the quality and impact of the programme. Her detailed briefings on institutional values, academic expectations, and professional ethics provided students with a strong foundation.

We also extend heartfelt appreciation to all faculty members, coordinators, and technical support staff whose contributions ensured smooth and timely execution of the entire schedule.

CONCLUSION

The Orientation Programme and ERP Training successfully oriented the newly admitted students to the academic environment, institutional framework, and digital platforms essential for their journey at Surendranath Law College.

This programme not only supported their initial transition but also reinforced the college's commitment to delivering structured, student-centric academic support.

We hereby submit this Appraisal Report along with relevant enclosures for your kind perusal and record.

II. WORKSHOP ON “OBJECTIVES AND PERSPECTIVES OF LEGAL EDUCATION IN THE CURRENT GLOBALISED SCENARIO”

1. INTRODUCTION TO THE WORKSHOP

On 6th December 2025, Surendranath Law College organised a significant academic workshop titled “Objectives and Perspectives of Legal Education in the Current Globalised Scenario.”

The workshop brought together eminent figures from the legal fraternity, judiciary, Bar Council, State Government, and the academic sector to address the rapidly transforming landscape of legal education in India and across the world.

The session aimed to broaden students’ understanding of global legal trends, professional expectations, and the crucial role of legal education in shaping competent, ethical, and globally aware legal practitioners.

2. WELCOME ADDRESS

The programme began with a formal welcome by:

MS. NIVEDITA BARAILY
Assistant Professor of Law
and
DR. SHUBHODEEP CHAKRAVARTI
Assistant Professor of Political Science

They extended greetings to all dignitaries, respected speakers, faculty members, principals, governing body members, and students. Their address highlighted the significance of legal education in an interconnected world and introduced the objectives of the workshop.

5. INAUGURATION CEREMONY

The programme was formally inaugurated with the Lighting of the Lamp by the dignitaries, symbolising enlightenment, wisdom, and the pursuit of knowledge.

6. FELICITATION OF DIGNITARIES

Each distinguished guest was felicitated on stage amidst warm applause and appreciation.

Short biographical introductions were presented, highlighting:

HON'BLE JUSTICE TIRTHANKAR GHOSH

Hon'ble Justice Tirthankar Ghosh has been an esteemed member of the Calcutta High Court since 12 February 2019, when he joined the Bench as an Additional Judge. His elevation as a Permanent Judge on 24 September 2020 stands as a testament to his judicial acumen, unwavering integrity, and commitment to the rule of law. Over the years, Justice Ghosh has earned deep respect within the legal fraternity for his clarity of thought, balanced reasoning, and dedication to upholding justice with fairness and humility.

HON'BLE MINISTER MOLOY GHATAK

Sir hails from Asansol in the Paschim Bardhaman district and completed his graduation in Political Science from Ananda Chandra College, Jalpaiguri, followed by an LL.B. from the University of Calcutta in 1982. A third-generation advocate, he has built a distinguished career in the legal field, primarily practising criminal law at the Asansol Court. In addition to his legal practice, he has also been elected multiple times as the representative of the Asansol Uttar constituency, reflecting his long-standing engagement with public service and community leadership.

DR. MOHAMMADI TARANNUM

Ma'am is an accomplished academic with a Ph.D. in Law from the University of Calcutta and over 17 years of teaching experience. She has served the institution in various capacities, including Assistant Professor, Teacher-in-Charge, and Vice Principal, and has authored books and numerous research papers on topics ranging from women's rights to competition law. She is also the recipient of the Shiksharatna Award from the Government of West Bengal.

HON'BLE CHAIRMAN, BAR COUNCIL OF WEST BENGAL, MR. ASHOK KUMAR DEB

Sir is a distinguished public figure and an experienced leader in both the legal and legislative spheres. He has been elected multiple times as the MLA from the Budge Budge constituency, beginning in 1996 and continuing through successive terms in 2001, 2006, 2011, 2016, and 2021 —reflecting the enduring trust and confidence he commands among the people he represents. Beyond his long-standing legislative service, he contributes significantly to the legal community through his leadership at the Bar Council of West Bengal, guiding policy, professional standards, and the development of the legal profession in the State.

ADDITIONAL SECRETARY, DEPT OF LAW, GOVT OF WEST BENGAL, DR. MD. SALIM ANSARI, WBLs

Dr. Md. Salim Ansari is an accomplished officer of the West Bengal Legal Service (WBLs) and currently serves as the Additional Secretary, Department of Law, Government of West Bengal. With his extensive experience in legal administration and policy matters, he plays a key role in guiding the State's legislative and legal processes. His contributions reflect a deep commitment to strengthening governance, legal reform, and public administration in West Bengal

ISENIOR ADVOCATE, HIGH COURT OF CALCUTTA, MR. NAYAN CHAND BIHANI

Nayan Chand Bihani has been practising in the Calcutta High Court since 1998 and was designated as a Senior Advocate in November 2024. His core areas of practice include writ matters under Article 226, with special expertise in environmental, service, municipal, educational, and electoral laws, as well as Public Interest Litigation. He has represented numerous petitioners and several major authorities, including the West Bengal Pollution Control Board, the State of West Bengal, Municipalities and Municipal Corporations, Universities, the State of Bihar, and the Odisha Pollution Control Board. Mr. Bihani has appeared in several significant cases, including the firecracker decibel regulation matters, environmental issues relating to IPL matches at Eden Gardens, and election-related litigations for the West Bengal State Election Commission

7. Welcome Address by the Vice Principal
Prof. (Dr.) Mohammadi Tarannum delivered the formal Welcome Address, emphasizing:

- The need for globally aware legal education
 - Evolving professional challenges
 - The role of Surendranath Law College in producing socially responsible legal practitioners
- Her address set the tone for an insightful academic session.

8. KEYNOTE ADDRESSES BY DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

The invited dignitaries delivered powerful, intellectually stimulating keynote lectures on:

- Globalisation and legal reforms
- Challenges in legal pedagogy
- Ethical and professional responsibilities of legal aspirants
- The future of legal careers in India and abroad
- Technology, digitisation, and new demands on legal practitioners

The sessions were exceptionally well-received and offered the students a rare opportunity to learn directly from eminent authorities.

9. INTERACTIVE SESSION

Students participated enthusiastically, engaging with the speakers through thoughtful questions.

The interactive segment successfully bridged theory with real-world perspectives.

10. Launch of the 2025 Magazine Cover – MINDIFICENT

An important highlight of the event was the launch of the college magazine cover “Mindificent” – A Magnificent Mind, marking an important milestone in the institution’s cultural and intellectual tradition.

11. Vote of Thanks

The programme concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by:

Dr. Shyamali Mukherjee Bhattacharya, expressing gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, student volunteers, and attendees whose contributions ensured the success of the workshop.

III. OVERALL CONCLUSION

The combined programmes—the Orientation Week, ERP Training, and the National-Level Workshop greatly enriched the academic initiation of the First Semester students.

These initiatives offered:

- Foundational understanding of institutional processes
- Digital empowerment through ERP training
- Exposure to national leaders in law, policy, and justice
- Intellectual insights into globalised legal education

The series of activities significantly strengthened the students’ preparedness for their journey in legal studies and reinforced the college’s commitment to excellence.

We submit this comprehensive report for your kind consideration and institutional archival.

VOTES OF THANKS BY THE MENTORS

We, the Faculties of Surendranath law College are privileged to propose a sincere vote of thanks to Your Lordship for your enlightening address on the objectives and perspectives of legal education in today's globalized world.

Your insightful observations on the evolving landscape of law, particularly in the areas of evidence law, technology law, and cyber law, have provided a profound understanding of the challenges we face. Your assertion that 'law is life' resonates deeply, and your emphasis on upgrading our systems to keep pace with technological advancements is a clarifying perspective.

Your Lordship's focus on the importance of paperless documents and e-evidence has highlighted the need for adaptability in our pursuit of justice. Your guidance will undoubtedly inspire and motivate us to rethink our approach to legal education and practice.

We are grateful for the time you have taken to share your expertise and wisdom with us today. Your contributions will have a lasting impact on our understanding of the law and its role in shaping a more just society.

Thank you, Your Lordship, for your invaluable insights and for being a beacon of inspiration for all of us. We are honored to have had the opportunity to learn from you.

Dr. Rukmini Thappa, Assistant Professor in Economics of Surendranath Law College has read out the message for students sent by Honourable Minister of Labour, ESI, Law & Judiciary, Sri Moloy Ghatak.

Dr. Shyamali Mukherjee Bhattacharya has given the honour to welcome all the esteemed guests who have taken out time from their busy schedule to give meaningful insights to our students.
